Subject: OS vs. Advertising portal?

Aloha,

I love Windows ? however, my fear of MS has been growing with the growth of the Internet and Internet Portals ? I don?t want to upgrade to Windows XP for fear of a marketing blitz and a filtered Internet in it?s very near future.

It should be written some basic laws of the Digital Domain ?

1. email falls under the same rules and procedures as snail mail
2. Operating Systems should be just that and no more, not attached to a ?Profiler? or ?Advertising Portal? unless we get the OS AND UltraBandWidth ?New Global Network? access FREE like broadcast TV.

I should be able to do a search on the Internet like it was the Oxford English, American Heritage etc? Dictionaries and all the Encyclopedia?s combined etc?

I should be able to do a search on the Internet and find a mailing address, email address, phone number etc? of anybody in the world ? NO UNLISTED ENTRIES!

I should be able to be connected to the Internet and see who is connected to me at ALL TIMES!

I?ve been looking at Linux, it?s not ready for prime-time yet, but getting close ? but how much will it cost to move some of my very expensive software to run on it??? I?m hoping for a newer and better OS than Linux.

Mahalo ... \(^o^)/ ... {;-) ... =|~
